INVITATION

President Fabiana Danesin and the Members of Soroptimist International Club Venezia Mestre are delighted to invite you to the extraordinary event conceived to give a young Woman the opportunity to live her dream of completing her studies enrolling at university and supporting her entry into the work world.

Saturday, March 9, 2019 at 7 P.M. in Venice, Palazzo Loredan Vendramin Calergi, San Marcuola, Cannaregio 2040, Antonia Sautter unrivalled creator of the il Ballo del Doge and world-renowned designer, will introduce us in her enchanted world.

Il Ballo del Doge has been defined by Vanity Fair “the most sumptuous and exclusive famous and sought after social event in the world”.

Antonia Sautter has been chosen by Stanley Kubrick to be the creator of the masks in his masterpiece “Eyes Wide Shut”.

She is an Italian Icon, appointed by with the prestigious “Cavaliere della Repubblica Italiana” award.

Her models will walk the catwalk wearing precious gowns, authentic jewels, unique pieces, real masterworks, high class models of polished handcrafted excellence.

“Somnio, ergo sum!”, this is Antonia Sautter’s motto . She is an Italian excellence, famous and recognized all over the world, who chose to join us to help a young woman to undertake university studies.

At the event will participate the Theatrical Company of Marco Foscarini Liceo in Venice that will play a piece from the work “My wounded body” by Professor Angelo Callipo, directed by Elisabetta Mason.

Angelo Callipo is author and theater director of national fame, as well as responsible for the project of the Lyceum theater. Winner of prestigious awards, he chose to share our dream by adapting for the occasion one of his works, awarded with the Mention of Honor at the XII edition of the Bari Observatory Award, Theater Section.

The High School Theatrical Laboratory won in 2015 the first prize of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers of Italy for “TeatroèScuola” competition.

Gala dinner will follow.

Palazzo Loredan Vendramin Calergi, overlooking the Grand Canal is one of the most elegant palaces of Venice. Its construction began in 1481 and ended in 1509. Over the centuries, various families were owners of the building, among which the Vendramin and the Calergi that gave the building its actual name.

Composer Richard Wagner lived there for long periods. Today the building is home to the Richard Wagner Association of Venice and the European Research and Research Center Richard Wagner, as well as the Venice Gaming House.
