St. Isaac's Cathedral or Church of the Savior on the Spilled Blood (2,5h) – 30 EUR p/person

St Isaac's Cathedral, one the finest cathedrals built in Europe in the 19th century, is a unique phenomenon in Russian architecture. Its golden dome, like the spires of the Peter and Paul Fortress and the Admiralty, is seen from afar. The very size of the dome, raised to a great height, suggests an immense size of the cathedral itself. Indeed, it is much larger than all the other churches in the city and can fit more than twelve thousand people at a time.

*The State Russian Museum is one of the world's largest museums and is perhaps the only one in the country, where treasures of national culture are presented so comprehensively.
