

10th Anniversary PROGRAM

1 November 2018: Arrival of guests - Transfer from the airport

Visit : Cité de la Culture –Tunis

2 November 2018: Historical tour to Dougga (Lunch inclusive)

Dougga or Thugga is a Romano-Berber city in northern Tunisia, included in a 65 hectare archaeological site.

UNESCO qualified Dougga as a World Heritage Site in 1997, believing that it represents “the best-preserved Roman small town in North Africa”. The site, which lies in the middle of the countryside, has been protected from the encroachment of modern urbanisation, in contrast, for example, to Carthage, which has been pillaged and rebuilt on numerous occasions.

Thugga's size, its well-preserved monuments and its rich Numidian-Berber, Punic, ancient Roman and Byzantine history make it exceptional. Amongst the most famous monuments at the site are a Libyo-Punic Mausoleum, the capitol, the theatre, and the temples of Saturn and of Juno Caelestis.

19 h: Friendship dinner & Club presentation

3 November 2018: 9 h: Departure visit of: *Ksar Warda, * handcraftvillage Denden, *Sidi Bou Said, *Carthage

Ksar Warda

Ksar Warda

Built in 1798 during the reign of Bey Husseinite Hammouda Pasha (1782-1814), transformed by Sadok Bey into a cavalry barracks, one of the greatest wonders of Tunisian architectural art first known by the people as "Borj El Kebir "or Ksar el warda. Taken in charge by the Ministry of National Defense, the palace recovered its splendor and became a military museum inaugurated on June 25, 1984. The museum possesses rich and precious collections of objects belonging to all eras of the history of Tunisia.

Visit of the handcraft village in Denden.

13 h: Lunch in La Goulette

La Goulette is the port of Tunis, located around 10 km North-Est from the capital.

Sidi Bou Said

"Sidi Bou Saïd is an ancient village, certainly the most beautiful of all those of Tunisia. Its privileged position offers a panoramic view of the turquoise sea at the foot of its red cliffs and allows you to admire, on the horizon, the famous Boukornine and the islands of Zembra and Zembretta Who did not want to live every day in one of those houses of Arab-Andalusian architecture whose white walls are crumbling under the bougainvilleas who burn them with their colors? Not dreamed of strolling again and again in the labyrinth of cobbled streets which, in the evening, perfume the jasmine and the mesk-ellil, both responsible for so much exaltation of the senses? It is not for nothing that since always the painters, novelists and aesthetes settled there.

Carthage:

Carthage is an ancient city-state in what is now Tunisia. It began as a Phoenician colony.[1] In the Aeneid, an old story by Vergil, Aeneas visited Carthage. He made the Queen of Carthage, Dido, angry and she killed herself as she loved him but he was going to leave her. Carthage at the height of its power was the foremost power in the Mediterranean Sea, controlling parts of Spain, Sicily, North Africa, Sardinia, and the Balearic islands.

19.30 h: anniversary dinner

4 November 2018: 9.30 h. departure Visite Bardo museum

The Bardo National Museum is a museum of Tunis, Tunisia, located in the suburbs of Le Bardo.

It is one of the most important museums in the Mediterranean region and the second museum of the African continent after the Egyptian Museum of Cairo by richness of its collections.[1] It traces the history of Tunisia over several millennia and across several civilizations through a wide variety of archaeological pieces.
